Important Information for All Submissions

At Rainbow Horizons Publishing, we welcome submissions of manuscripts and book proposals from teachers and writers. We accept submissions for supplementary teacher resource books for prekindergarten to grade 12. We also accept submissions of non-book product ideas. We receive many submissions, and develop many ideas for books in-house. For all books that we publish and products that we produce, Rainbow Horizons Publishing maintains the highest standards.

If we think we have any books for you to write based on ideas that we develop in-house, please note the following:

1. We will contact you by email.
2. Rainbow Horizons Publishing generally purchases the manuscript from an author, and all rights to it, for a single flat fee. Once purchased, the manuscript's copyright becomes the sole property of Rainbow Horizons Publishing, and all terms of the purchase will be included in a written agreement between both parties.
3. Artwork and graphics are not required. All artwork and design will be the responsibility of Rainbow Horizons Publishing.

If we do not have any books for you to write, please note the following:

1. We will contact you by email.
2. We are unable to provide a critique of materials that we do not publish.
3. If you do not send a self-addressed envelope with the appropriate postage for shipping with your submission package, your materials will not be returned to you.

Due to the amount of submissions we receive, please allow 4 to 8 weeks for your submission to be reviewed.

Thank you for considering Rainbow Horizons Publishing!
